Dhaka To Dakar: Journey Through Asia - Chapter 2: Bangladesh

Synopsis

The overland part of the journey from Dhaka, Bangladesh, to Dakar, Senegal, began here. Dhaka is close to the craziest city on Earth, Bangladesh an often forgotten country with an incredibly high population density. I met with friends here and discovered a city I was visiting for the second time before heading on to cross from Asia to Europe completely by land.

Customer Reviews

Andre Boland spends a week in Dhaka, entering by air and departing by road, towards India. While we don't get much, at this juncture, about his travel part, what we do get is a brilliant short stay guide to Dhaka as well as an Australian's eye view of life in Bangladesh's Capital city. There is mention of the oldest church in the world, an Armenian Christian church, He calls it the oldest church in the world, which is not really true, since it was built in and around 1781. But that's OK. What I liked about this short chapter is the keen human touch he brings to his experiences in Bangladesh. For that alone, I do wish the whole book was also available free, as the Chapter I read was free when I downloaded it! There is joy and positiveness in the chapter.
