Doubting Love: A Clean & Wholesome Romance Series (Nick & Lexi Book 4)

Synopsis

Life has finally settled for Evan and Lexi. They have a nice home in their new city of Chicago, promising careers that they are passionate about and a marriage that most would envy. Best of all, they are more madly in love with one another than ever. So when Lexi discovers she's pregnant, she can't wait to tell Evan that their dream of starting a family together is coming true. That is, until she hears something that shakes her trust and belief in the man she loves. And she's not sure how to handle it. Heading back to Asheville, North Carolina, to sort out her feelings with the help of her best friend, Kendall, she leaves Evan with nothing to do but hope she returns. He doesn't understand why she left or why she was so angry. In fact, as far as he knew, everything was as perfect as ever between them. Still, vowing to give her the space she desires, he stays in Chicago and waits for her to return. Then the doctor calls. She has some concerns regarding the health of the baby...the baby Evan didn't even know about. What lies ahead for Evan & Lexi? Will the love that they've fought so hard for be enough to see them through? Will their joint concern for their baby bring them back together? Or will they watch their marriage crumble before their family even has a chance to begin? Find out in Doubting Love, Book 4 in "Nick & Lexi"! Customer Reviews

Easy to give this series five stars! Down to earth, tackling real problems, real honest!! couldn't put these books down, to get to bed...lol!! like books that aren't too romantically mushy...I like them relatable.A great author...can't wait to see what else she has for us!

OMG!!!! I loved the final book!!! She did such a great job of ending the series!!!! BRAVA! BRAVA! BRAVA!!! There were really times I wanted to smack Lexi, Kendell handled it well!!

Book was good, but, not the language! This was on a Christian site. I have been trying to leave a comment, but, it wouldn't let me
