Antarctic Explorer Map; (Ocean Explorer Maps)

Synopsis

This is an excellent foldout map of Antarctica. On one side there is a map of the Antarctic continent, around which succinct biographies of Antarctic explorers from William Spiers Bruce to Edward Wilson are shown. On the other side there are many fine colour photographs of seals, penguins and other Antarctic wildlife, together with an inset box summarising the Antarctic Treaty and other information on Antarctic waters, Cape Horn, Tierra del Fuego, the Beagle Channel, the Falkland Islands and South Georgia. It is aimed at visitors arriving by sea.

Customer Reviews

A very helpful map, especially for people planning a trip to Antarctica. Map is on good quality paper. One side is a large, general map of the continent with photos and short descriptions of the various Antarctic explorers. The other side are closeup maps of the areas generally visited by Antarctic tourists, interspersed with photos of birds, mammals and landscapes of the area.

One of the best Antarctic maps! I had bought this before my trip, and used it daily to help me see where we were, and also read about the history and men and women who had travelled and explored in these places. I realized how helpful this map was when I saw it being offered for sale in our cruise ship's gift shop.

A great, detailed map. Very comprehensive with insets. The list of explorers and their short biographies helps to understand how Antarctica is controlled by treaty today. As it turns out, this is the only map that was sold onboard the ship that we sailed on.

I took this map on a SCUBA diving expedition and had everyone sign it as a memento. Great idea. I then had it laminated after the trip as a wonderful memory of the people and the places. It is missing the South Sandwich Islands but not many people are able to go there so you may not need to have them included.

This is a great map! It will go with me on my trip to Antarctica. Good maps included of the Falkland and So Georgia Islands with enlargement of the peninsula area most travelers visit. I expect it to be very useful while there. Right now it is a great reference as I read through Cruising Antarctica and locate all the places mentioned. I'm thinking I'll feel well oriented when I get there and as the trip progresses.

We will take this with us to Antarctica to see where we are. Great reference!

BIG when open, lots of quick history surrounds the map so you can see who landed where when. I'll be taking it with me to Antarctica.
