Synopsis

Asalaamu alaykum wa rahmatulla wa bariketu: The NMB (New Muslimah Blog) has closed its doors due to other commitments, but all of the useful articles are alive and well, having been transferred into this helpful guide! The views and information here are influenced by the Sunni Islamic tradition and offer tips on all of the essentials for the new practicing Muslimah. From hijab and halal, to salat and ummah. Includes pictures of Muslimah from around the world, plenty of links and recommended websites to review. Get the answers you need for salat (prayer), where to find halal/tayyid (permitted/wholesome) meals while traveling, including airlines that accommodate. Learn how to perform ghusl (proper devotional cleansing after menstruation); how to wear hijab (modesty scarf and clothing), even a few recipes for holiday time, tidbits of cultural interest and more. Please note, It was my intent to offer this useful guide for free, but there are minimum requirements for publishing with , so rest assured, your payment will be given to charity. The share option is also enabled, so feel free to loan it to your friends, family or other interested parties! Jazak Allah Khair
