Travels In Edinburgh: Top Spots To See (Travels In The United Kingdom Book 2)

Synopsis

Heading to Scotland? Make sure you get the most out of your visit to Edinburgh by reading this booklet. Kristie Dean has been to Edinburgh many times. This short travel guide, Travels in Edinburgh: Top Spots to See, is the result of her experiences. There's no "fluff" in this booklet - it's straight to the point. This guide serves as a quick reference of must-see spots, with opening times and brief information. It's something you can easily read on the plane to plan your itinerary. Why wade through large travel guides with extraneous information when you can get fast and easy-to-read information about the best spots to visit in Edinburgh? This is the second short guide in the series Travels in the United Kingdom. Don't miss the first guide, "Travels in London: Top Sites to See."

Customer Reviews

Have never been to Edinburgh but hope to soon. I found Kristie Dean's brief intro to top places to visit to be interesting and offering just the right amount of information to help me choose what to research in depth. A quick read well done.

This book is concise, yet informative! It's easy readability allows one to become informed quickly and easily. I love the fact that the author encourages one to travel if that is their desire, and how to travel with limited funds. The author gives valuable information on how to economize at home, while planning the trip, and while abroad!

a good easy to manage book. Check out itineraries from hotel. Make a few notes and take off.

told me what I needed to know succinctly. A short book full of insight.

I've been to Edinburgh on three separate occasions and it is one of my favorite European destinations. Grab this before you go, whether it is your first time or tenth. You're going to love this city.

If you have a day or two to spend in Edinburgh, this is the book. I read the whole book in about an hour. You can learn more about each site when you arrive.

Travels in Edinburgh ~ The book was boring , I was hoping for more pictures then talking. I love history but I did not finish the book.it might just be me! Where as others might really enjoy the book

It has been my privilege to travel abroad with the author numerous times. I am thrilled that she is writing travel guides because she is a well-spring of both practical and historically interesting information. The reader will be well prepared for his or her travels as Ms. Dean provides useful information in a straightforward easily referenced way. She is a master at finding ways to creatively finance travels and she discovers all of the best places to see and things to do in every destination she visits. Buying this book is like investing in your own private tour guide and I can think of none better than Ms. Dean!
