Winless Winner

Synopsis

Winless Winner is the story of the Carroll Academy Lady Jags and Jaguars basketball teams. Carroll Academy is a correctional alternative school located in rural west Tennessee for at-risk girls and boys. The kids who attend Carroll Academy are court-ordered there by local juvenile court judges. Back in 1998, Carroll County Juvenile Court Director Randy Hatch created Carroll Academy's basketball program with much resistance from public schools and the local community. Winless Winner details numerous stories about how the Carroll Academy Lady Jags and Jaguars were treated by some of their opponents as the teams played 133 consecutive road games because the school did not have a home gymnasium. Some of their opponents continued to utilize full-court pressing with leads in excess of 50 to 100 points. Both teams proved their critics wrong as they won Tennessee's sportsmanship awards for every year since Coach Hatch founded the basketball program.
