Love, Lies And Friendship: A Pride And Prejudice Regency Variation

Synopsis

Lizzy Bennet was proud, insufferable and downright arrogant! I will never accept him. Mr Darcy had to move on from Miss Bennet, and she was there at the time. The Duchess Bennet if anyone finds out, I will be ruined and shamed out of England and my title. Lizzy thought that after she rejected Mr Darcy's proposal and left Hunsford, she would be rid of him forever. But unfortunately, that wasn't to be the case after meeting his new fiancée during a celebration at Rosings Park. Since then, more and more things have come up about the Duchess, and her strange behaviour regarding the recent engagement between her and Mr Darcy. Only it wasn't until after Lydia Bennet ran away, that more things began to unfold, and the Duchess's true nature started revealing itself. This Pride and Prejudice adaption tells the story of love that was lost and found again under the most unlikely circumstances.

Customer Reviews

Mr. Darcy engages himself to another after being refused by Elizabeth. The story revolves around a his betrothed & GW & their impact on odc. The source of helpful information was surprising. Unfortunately, the massive grammatical errors made me laugh when they should have not coupled with odc acting entirely out of character requires a 1 star rating. The author needs to reread P&P as well as to learn English grammar.

Good attempt but it kind of fell flat. Nothing new here other than The Duchess and quite frankly, her story didn't make much sense. Very little character development and sadly lacking much of a plot. The whole story centered around Wickham and his misdeeds. Very short and not worth the time spent.

There are far too many problems in this brief work to enumerate. There is a plot that supposedly moves the plot ahead. However the end of the work is reached without any explanation. The writing is weak. Anachronisms in language abound. Nuff said.

Terrible plot, unbelievable storyline, mixing tenses , bad grammar, a waste of time to read. Obviously not proof read as the errors were glaringly apparent.
