The Joy Of Signing Puzzle Book 1: Have Fun Learning To Sign

Synopsis

Whether you are learning sign language to communicate with a family member, student, coworker, or friend, remembering and using sign language can be easy and fun! A creative way to review and practice, the new origin puzzles match the origin with both the finger-spelled and signed version of the word. These twenty-five puzzles are a combination of easy and medium levels corresponding to The Joy of Signing (Third Edition). Answer keys are included. (2017-03-08)

Linda Lascelle Hillebrand is a part-time sign language instructor. She lives with her husband and two sons in Saukville, Wisconsin. Since 1980 she has been a member of the Silent Singers, a deaf-awareness group that combines music with sign language. Dr. Lottie L. Riekehof served as professor of Sign Communications at the world's only liberal arts college for the deaf, Gallaudet University in Washington, DC. Previously, she was engaged in teaching and research at New York University's Deafness Research and Training Center, where she earned both MA and PhD degrees. Considered one of the leading interpreters in the United States, Dr. Riekehof has been in demand at the highest levels and was the platform interpreter for President Reagan's first inauguration ceremony.

Fun to do, and helps the learning process, but Book 2 is much better.

My wife loves the book as she teaches sign language.
