Each Fodor's travel guide is researched and written by resident writers and experts.

The book was helpful in finding where to go and what to do but we were a little disappointed in the restaurant section. When we followed the book we weren't very impressed with the restaurant. We were much happier when we would ask a local person where to go and they would usually point us to a restaurant that wasn't even listed in the book. I would still buy a similar guide for other cities but would ask around when I got there about the best places to eat.

Excellent reviews and recommendations on scenes and restaurants. Had a wonderful trip. Loved the book.

I like this book. I usually use the DK Eyewitness guides for my European travels but the Top 10 book wasn't helpful. The Fodor's book is great as it gives more details about hotels, restaurants, bars, and shopping. It even includes a map. I recommend this book.

I've been using these travel guides for various places for years and have been very pleased.

I did not find this book helpful. It should have been more clear and concise. Maps were too complicated for the lay person and information was difficult to find. It read as an actual novel, not guide.
