Everyday Leadership Cards: Writing And Discussion Prompts

Synopsis

Every teen can be a leader. This easy-to-use deck of discussion and writing prompts helps instill a leadership attitude in teens by encouraging them to think about their beliefs and goals, how they communicate, what they admire in a leader, and more. Each card contains at least one prompt; many also include definitions of key words, "Imagine This!" scenarios, "What would you do?" questions, and "Stuck?" prompts that provide help for hard to talk about questions. You can build complete lessons around Everyday Leadership Cards or use them for a quick discussion between other activities. The card deck can be used independently or as a supplement to the award-winning book Building Everyday Leadership in All Teens, and is great for group or one-on-one situations. A fold-out insert with directions and suggestions for using the writing and discussion prompts also is included with the cards.

very useful

Great book for those working with teens and creating training for teens and developing their sense of leadership

If you are looking for a tool that can kick start conversations about leadership with students, this product works. It does not provide great activities or much extension, but the discussion prompts are useful.

Good for use in middle school
