As usual, Moleskine has produced a great product that leaves you in the driver seat. The maps are nice, you don't look like a total tourist since they're small. Only the main map, with the public transit system on the other side, folds out. Other than the maps and the street listing, the rest of the Toronto guide is up to you to put together. Write in the labeled tabbed sections! Use the stickers to decide what the unlabeled tab sections should be! When you've been using this for a while, it will be the perfect travel guide for you. I've got restaurant reviews, directions, cool memories, ticket stubs... such a good journal. It's enough to make me want to go back so I can fill in more. And this time, I'll be better equipped to show someone else around! The Toronto guide will just keep getting better. Did I mention all the usual Moleskine benefits? Accordion pocket in the back, three placeholders, pocket-size, and that wonderful elastic strap to hold it all in.

Should note this notebooks are smaller than the standard (expected) moleskine notebook
