Synopsis

The Duke's Unlikely Bride After the death of her father, Margaret Cobb was left without a place to call home. Forced to accept a job as a companion to a wicked old lady, who happens to be the aunt of a Duke, she finds herself in unfamiliar territory. Margaret becomes the target of jealous women who see her as competition. Margaret longs for true love and to escape the constant belittling and insults she receives from her terrible boss. Will she find true love? Will she survive the schemes of jealous women and escape from her dreadful boss?

The Duke and the Dressmaker Phoebe is a modest and unassuming dressmaker who works for her family's business. She is hardworking and down to earth, possessing a subtle charm and a skill with a needle which is second to none. So, when she is contracted to make a dress for the upcoming marriage of Lady Anna, the conceited and overindulged daughter of a local Duke, it's no real surprise. But following the fitting, at Lady Anna's fiancé's estate, Phoebe is suddenly trapped by a storm which unexpectedly blows in. With no other solution to her problem she is invited to spend the night by Duke Benjamin Harlow and his sister, Lady Olivia. During the evening, as the trio play cards and enjoy each other's company, Lady Olivia and Phoebe find that they share a lot in common. But, more importantly, a subtle attraction becomes evident between Phoebe and the Duke. When Lady Olivia proposes that Phoebe becomes her dressmaking tutor, some days later, it provides an opportunity for the Duke to see her frequently and as the unspoken feelings between them quietly grow, the Duke suddenly calls off his impending wedding to Lady Anna and suddenly Phoebe finds herself with a sworn enemy. With her family business facing ruin, following lies and rumor spread by the vindictive Lady Anna, how will Phoebe manage? And will Duke Benjamin confess his true feelings for her in time to save them both?

The Duke's Unforgettable Kiss Sold at the market by her husband so he can live with his mistress, Eleanor Barnett is lucky to catch the attention of a baron who buys her and puts her to work doing household chores at his estate. Though marriage was not part of the deal, the baron soon falls for Eleanor. A love triangle ensues when the baron's best friend the Duke of Sussex meets her and gives her a kiss that she cannot forget. Does she remain loyal to the baron who saved her from an unhappy marriage or follow her heart to be with the duke?

The Duke's Dangerous Dilemma The Duke of Middlechester finds himself in a conundrum after a fellow soldier and longtime friend, Mr. Donne, takes a bullet for him while fighting in the Napoleonic War. The Duke feels obligated to accept an unimaginable favor asked of him by Mr. Donne due to the debt of saving his life. The Duke suffers the consequences and has to decide between his commitment of duty to repay his friend, or being true to himself and follow his heart. Which path will he choose?
