Customer Reviews

It came on time, looks like pictured, but there are a ton of grammatical and word errors. At one point the trainer is introduced as a girl and in the second chapter she is now referred to as "HE". I honestly think they didn't proof read it before printing. But my little brother seems to like it.

I bought this for a basket my daughter's class is putting together for a fundraiser. Their theme was Pokemon. I wanted something inexpensive but that would add value to the basket. This was perfect. 3rd graders are fascinated by bodily functions, so it was a fitting contribution. The teacher and I both pre-screened it, and the content is cute. It's written in a tone that matches a child's thought process, and the flow was conversational. I found nothing I would consider questionable about it being appropriate for this age group. $\tilde{A} \tilde{A} \tilde{A} \hat{\tilde{A}} \hat{\tilde{A}} \tilde{A} \tilde{A} \tilde{A} \hat{\tilde{A}} \hat{\tilde{A}}$.

Adorable book. Cute and well written. A little long for my 5 year old but he thinks anything PokÃ©mon is the best ever and the fact they talk about farting makes this book over the top amazing to him LOL.

not as comic-booky as i was expecting, way more reading, which to me is a plus.... the 8 year old is digging it so far.

Bought this book for my son who hates reading but loves Pikachu. Once he found out that it doesn't have any "AR points" he wasn't interested in reading it. (The AR points may not matter to parents outside of Florida.) My daughter who loves reading did enjoy reading it.

Very well written and very funny. It is a good book for kids to. THIS IS TO MAKE IT LONG ENOUGH

Cute little book. My grandson will love it

My 10 yr old son LOVES these books!!
