Frommer's EasyGuide To Montreal And Quebec City (Frommer's Easy Guides)

Synopsis

Between them, our three authors have either written or contributed to a dozen Frommer's travel guides to Quebec over the years. They have returned to these two, colorful, pleasure capitals of Quebec for this brand-new edition, which reflects their most recent discoveries in attractions, lodgings, meals, cultural highlights, and shops. Using the Easy Guide approach, they limit themselves to the very best in all price ranges--truly an "easy guide" to use and savor.

Customer Reviews

Matthew Barber writes about food trends and cooking for the Boston Globe. He lives with his wife, Leslie Brokaw, and their son and dog in Boston, MA. Leslie Brokaw has been a travel writer since 2006, contributing to more than ten Frommer's Guides to Montreal and New England. Her first books were coauthored with her stepfather, long-time Frommer's contributor, Herbert Livesey. She lives in Boston, MA. Erin Trahan is a Boston-based writer and editor who specializes in film and travel. This is her sixth Frommer's Guide to Montreal and Quebec City.

Frommer's is always the best for guide books in my opinion. Easy to use. Good information. Just wish it had more information about areas surrounding the cities.

This book made it easy to map out itineraries given our limited amount of time in each city. Having public transit info was especially helpful.

Very Basic, Very general. Talk too little about a lot of things....whit these great cities and book was not able to create a good experience for me. Had to find other resources for ideas and places.

Very thorough overview of both cities. We found some very good restaurants and sites to visit with this book.

Good concise guide to Quebec's two main cities.

Not enough detail on the neighborhoods of Montreal; rather trivial overview of main sites. Some good recommended walking tours, but lousy for restaurants and off-beat neighborhoods. I only used for Montreal so cannot comment on the Quebec section.

Great travel guide!

Great book!
