Algeria From Within,

Synopsis

Large 8vo. 308 pp, Foreword, 39 chapters; index with b&w illustrations throughout. First Edition, 1927. Tan cloth with black blind-stamped lettering to front board and spine. ``The only solution to the problem of writing this book has been for the author to settle in the country, living the life of its people, and gleaning whhat information was possible as a business man in the city of Algiers as a sheep-breeder on the Sahara, and as a traveler across the great plains and mountains of this sunny land. It is hoped that the reader, be he a tourist or scholar, will find in these pages information which is new and interesting." from Chapter I: The Object of This Book.
