This is a coloring book of 48 designs that have lots of patterning within them. Most of the designs are intricate while others are fairly open and easy to color. The intricate designs are not difficult to color (i.e., they don't have tiny little spaces) but certainly take a little more time and thought. Most of the designs are mandalas Ã¢Â¢Ã¢Â¢ which I find fun to color as it gives me the opportunity to try different colorways. These designs are Ã¢Â¢Ã¢Â¢ curatedÃ¢Â¢Ã¢Â¢ which means that they are licensed from various artists. It gives you a wider range of design styles but along with it, you get very different quality of lines and print. Some designs have heavy and/or dark black lines while others seem almost dark gray in color. In a few very, some of the lines seem less distinct than in others. The designs are printed on one side of thin white. The pages are not perforated but the artist has left ample room to cut a page out if you choose to do so. The binding is glued rather than sewn so you will have to cut the pages if you want to remove them. The designs all have finished elements or a small framing line on the outer portions of the designs. I really like this as it helps give work a more polished a finished look. You can see a list of my coloring medium used for testing below. All of my markers (water-based as well as alcohol) and all of my gel pens bleed through this paper. My coloring pencils work well with it and behave according to their type of lead (though my hard lead pencils leave a noticeable indent on the back of the page. As the backside of the page is blank, I can use a heavyweight paper or chipboard beneath my working page to keep ink from leaking through or my indents from marring the page beneath. Chipboard can be purchased at an office supply store or on-line fairly inexpensively. I can reuse it many times over, so that is becoming my standard blotter sheet. These are the coloring medium that I use for testing. If there is something else you feel I should be testing, please let me know and I will see if I can add it to my growing pile: Markers: 1) alcohol-based $\text{A}f\text{A}\text{c}\text{A}$ $\text{A} \rightarrow \text{A}$ $\text{A} \rightarrow \text{A}$ Copic Sketch, Prismacolor double ended markers (brush and fine point), Sharpies (fine and ultra-fine) and 2) water-based $\text{A}f\text{A}\text{c}\text{A}$ $\text{A} \rightarrow \text{A}$ $\text{A} \rightarrow \text{A}$ Tombows dual end markers (brush and fine point), Stabilo 88, Staedler triplus fineliners, and Pentel markers. Gel Pens: Sakura, Fiskars, and Tekwriter. Coloring Pencils: Prismacolor Premiere Soft Core, Derwent Colorsoft, Prismacolor Verithins, and Faber-Castel Polychromos. I was provided a free sample of this coloring book for test and review purposes.

This coloring book has quickly become a favorite of mine. With so many design & mandala coloring books on the market it can be overwhelming to decide which books are just right for you. This mandala and design coloring book might be just the coloring book you are looking for. It is large filled with 48 imaginative designs which include 21 circular mandalas. This book gives you an imaginative variety of designs that will inspire you including Mandalas, Paisleys, Zentangle, Floral patterns and even one with Houses, each made up of balanced, flowing intricate details, a couple large enough to use crayons or add more of your own details, a few filled with tiny details that take a steady hand and a fine tip, most are filled with medium details that flow and are balanced plus perfect for a variety of coloring mediums. Markers, Gel Pens, and Colored pencils. Most of the images can be completed in one or two evenings. The cover picture is included in the book. 1. 48 designs and mandalas fill this little 8 x 10 inch coloring book that is printed one image per page (the back of each page is blank) on medium weight, bright white paper. 2. The illustrations are centered on each page and leave $\text{A}f\text{A}$ $\text{A} \rightarrow \text{A}$ $\text{A}f\text{A}\text{c}\text{A}$ $\text{A} \rightarrow \text{A}$ $\text{A} \rightarrow \text{A}$ between each image and the binding leaving plenty of room to remove individual pages from the book with a box cutter or to take to an office supply store and remove the entire binding for your coloring group. 3. All markers leak through the pages, I just place one piece of scrap paper under the page I am coloring to prevent damage to the next page.4. You will find 21 circular mandalas, 4 full paged designs and 23 other designs in a variety of forms.5. You will find designs made up of Geometric patterns, Paisleys, Henna designs and symbols, Zen patterns that layer, twist and turn, floral designs with leaves, a landscape with houses in a row, and native American designs with fish.6. You will find a few simply detailed designs that are wonderful to color as they are or add more intricate designs to create your own unique works of art, you will find a few very intricately detailed designs that you must use pens, colored pencils or ultra fine tip markers and a steady hand, most of these meticulously detailed designs are made up of medium details, just the right size for my Tombow double tipped markers, I used the brush tip on the pictures I am adding and each took just an evening to complete.7. I am adding images to help you decide if this book is just right for you. NOTE: I list paper weight as:Light weight if I need to use 2 or more pages of paper under the picture I am coloring to prevent damage to the next page, and all markers easily leak through the pages. Colored pencils indent the next page unless you have cardboard behind the page you are coloring, I use a clip board under the page I am coloring when I use colored pencils. Medium weight is average and one sheet of paper under the page I am coloring prevents damage to the next image, and all markers leak through the pages. Colored pencils indent the next page and it is a good idea to use a backing .Heavy weight paper is heavier and some markers do not leak through the paper, usually the water based markers and one sheet of paper prevents damage to the next page. Colored pencils do not indent the following page. Other paper I see coloring books made up of are card stock and actual art paper, but most coloring books are made up of Light, Medium or Heavy paper pages. Received a free sample for evaluation and unbiased review.

I bought these coloring books as a gift for a group of my friends for a Christmas party, they were shipped and delivered on time and they were in perfect condition. The designs are very intrinsic and I am sure they are a lot of fun to color! My friends were all very excited to give it a try as they have heard it is very relaxing and stress relieving. I am not sure if any of my friends have tried using markers on the pages so I do not know if the ink bleeds but colored pencils were also gifted with the books and they all said they work wonderfully. The reason I gave this only stars is because there is a lot of white space on some of the pages, the pictures are a little small and I feel it is just wasted space. I would recommend these to anyone looking for a good quality and good price coloring book that is satisfying for adults. I intend to purchase a few more for a few of my residents at the nursing home!
