Simple, Spectacular Braided-in Rugs (Rugmaker's Handbook) (Volume 5)

Synopsis

Braided-in rugs only look complicated! With a few old T-shirts, a pair of scissors and a handful of safety pins, you can create stunning braided-in rugs. This lost folk art comes alive with simple step-by-step directions. These durable, reversible rugs are made in a single step, which automatically forms swirling lines for big visual impact. The author walks the first-time rug maker through the process and shows how to make rugs with two, four, six and even eight strands. Directions for right- and left-handers, plus no-sew options make the rugs suitable for all skill levels. With a dozen projects in various shapes, you can create your own heirloom rugs and baskets with fabrics ranging from light cotton to heavy wool.

Customer Reviews

Excellent written, with easy-to-understand instructions and illustrations. Contains information on everything from making specific shapes and patterns to converting old T-shirts into rug strips. She also includes the information necessary to make baskets and even tote bags and hats using this method. Ms. Gray is not only a master rugmaker, but an excellent writer and teacher.

Love it!

Nice book and great pictures. Explains clearly what to do. I'm glad I bought this book.
