The Safanarion Order Omnibus, Books 1-3

Synopsis

This omnibus edition contains first three books in the Safanarion Order series. Road to Shandara, Book 1: College senior Aaron Jace is ready to start life in the real world. After the unexpected death of his grandfather, Aaron finds an unbelievable note that will change his world. The unknowing descendent of an ancient and powerful family, Aaron is thrust into a struggle that began long ago and will reach across worlds to pull him into the fight. When he learns of the world of Safanar, it seems to be the stuff of legends: dragons, castles, and technologically advanced cities. But it's as much a dream as it is a nightmare. Danger lurks in the shadows, and a demon sentinel named Tarimus wants to steal Aaron's power before he can learn his full potential. With the help of an imprisoned Safanarion guardian, two mystical swords, and a puzzling family heirloom, Aaron must journey from Earth to find the fabled land of his ancestors. It may be a path that's impossible to survive. Echoes of a Gloried Past, Book 2: Aaron Jace barely survived his last encounter with the Drake, a ruthless technological advancement constructed to murder the Alenzar'seth, the Lords of Shandara. Sarah, the woman he loves, has been kidnapped by the deadly machine, and Aaron's closest allies suggest he abandon all hope of ever seeing her again. As Aaron recovers, rumors of the Alenzar'seth's return begin to spread throughout Safanar, causing kingdoms to mobilize their armies for war. The pressure is rising, and Aaron knows the people of Safanar are all in grave danger. Aaron has one shot to protect his love and stave off war, but it will leave him vulnerable to the cunning High King Amorak and the vile Elitesmen Order. If he fails, the world will fall, and nothing can save Sarah from an irreversible transformation. Amidst the Rising Shadows, Book 3: Aaron Jace is a prisoner of war. Captive on the Hythariam home world that's destined for destruction, there's little chance that Aaron can return to protect Safanar. When rebellion breaks out in Khamearra, Sarah must abandon her quest to reach Aaron to help free her people. It seems an impossible task against High King Amorak, who can strike anywhere, anytime, and without warning. As the Free Nations Army desperately prepares for war against Amorak and a ruthless invasion force determined to enslave them all, Sarah and Aaron's companions may be the only hope to keep the people of Safanar alive. Loyalties and friendships will be strained to the breaking point as a fragile alliance of nations may be all that keeps the world from tearing apart.

Customer Reviews

Great merger of magic and sci-fi and has a well done but overused plot of Hero comes from Earth and saves their world. I gave it 5 stars up until the end of the first book. I hated how the first book ended and Aaron the main character pissed me off. The 2nd and 3rd books were good but I could never cheer on Aaron after that. If Sarah would have died I would probably give this 4 stars. I like a story where I can cheer on the main character and that was lost by the ending of book 1 but overall it was still worth reading.

An enjoyable romp in which an integration of magic and sci-fi weapons is carried out with reasonable self consistency. Primary characters well drawn and the plot development keeps you interested.

Very well written, enjoyed from the first page to the last. I would definitely recommend this series to my friends.

I enjoyed the mixture of fantasy and science fiction, the moral story being told, and the value of true friendships.

Wonderfully crafted story that mixes fantasy and sci fi. Pulled me in time and time again!

Well written, with very good characters. Story line was very good, can't wait to read the next book.

Really enjoyed this series. Look forward to reading other books from this author

Good read. Kept my interest through all 3 books.
