SABRINA GHAYOUR is a self-taught cook, food writer, and host of the widely popular Sabrina’s Kitchen supper club in London. One of the most exciting voices in Middle Eastern cuisine today, she is also the bestselling and award-winning author of Persiana: Recipes from the Middle East & Beyond. Her work has been featured in numerous publications, including The Times, the Evening Standard, The Guardian, BBC Good Food Magazine, and more.

Persian cooking is completely new to me - Sabrina Ghayour has made it less of a mystery with this and Persiana. The photos are gorgeous and help a beginner to understand what a dish should look like. Descriptions of seasonings helps a novice understand how to put flavors together and what to expect in the end. Love it.

Great cookbook. I don't have a lot of experience cooking Middle Eastern influenced dishes, so I love the new spices and combinations this introduced me to. A lot of the recipes are crazy simple and perfect for a weeknight. The only thing I wish it had more of is vegetarian or low-meat main dishes. Many of the sides and salads are vegetarian but they don't work well for a whole meal (I tried the Zucchini roll-ups thinking it would be a meal and it was, as she said herself, more of a side dish or party snack. You certainly can't eat a billion of them as dinner because of the rich flavor and salt). Most of the main meals involve meat. All in all, I'm so glad I got this cookbook and it has added a lot of flavors and given me confidence working with spices and ingredients that are newer for me.

Excellent wonderful follow up to Persiana

Great cookbook with lots of tasty and simple recipes

I had heard this author on The Splendid Table podcast and was really excited to try this book since I cook dishes from the Middle East regularly. Unfortunately, I am really disappointed as I have only found a few recipes that I either want to cook or that I liked. In addition, she lists pantry ingredients that are a bit difficult to find and I live in a fairly large city of over 2 million people.

Love the recipes. Have made feta bites, lamb kebabs, fish and chips, a salad. The fish and chips could have had better frying instructions but the food was great.

What a wonderful recipe book. Great pictures and everything sounds delicious!

This book is full of great recipes and easy to follow instructions. Anything I have made from the book has been a hit with friends and family. This indeed is a book I am giving as a gift to others and know it will be treasured by them.
