Jerry Lee Lewis is the king of the piano. You can't touch this guy. I love Jerry Lee Lewis. He has a million albums and I try to buy them whenever I find them. I've got about 25 of them and they're all great. This is not an exaggeration. I've bought them all over the country, here in LA, New Orleans, Baton Rouge, you name it. Any store that has a country section, I'm scouring for some JLL.

Anyway, I thought it would be great to learn to play some of his country songs. Man, they are tough. It's amazing that they were transposed at all because he is such a flamboyant player. He throws it around like Oscar Peterson. It's a bit out of my league at this point, but I'm working up to it. In the meantime, if you're in the market for some good JLL vinyl, check out I-40 Country and Ole Tyme Country Music. Good stuff!

If you love Jerry Lee Lewis then this is a must own if your a big fan. The piano playing is intermediate, to advanced, to you playing Jerry's solo's. If you feel you can play like Jerry than by all means give it a try. There are a lot of his country songs that he did after his rock n roll records, and there is the classic Lewis songs, "Great Balls of Fire", and "Whole Lot of Shaking going on."

Love this book! Nice big fat chords (be warned: these are the piano components, not arrangements of the full songs with piano fills for vocals or other instruments). Some nice surprises in here that are not JLL songs, but he did cover.

this is exactly what I wanted/expected. it has the solos just like he played them, note for note. this is a great book.

I've been waiting for a Jerry Lee Lewis book like this and here it is. I'm a big fan of the Billy Joel, Elton John, Beatles, Doors keyboard books. I own all of the authentic keyboard transcription books that I can find because they are the best books for keyboard players. Nice to finally have a Jerry Lee Lewis book. Hoping for Fats Domino and Little Richard books like these in the future.

I love it, I am trying to get wife into playing early rock and country/bluegrass. Fun to play together.

A good reference.

If you want to play piano the way that Jerry Lee Lewis plays it here is where to start. This book has note-for-note transcriptions of Jerry's greatest songs just how he plays it. I only wish I got the first edition with the Chuck Berry songs in it. If you wan't to learn how to play 50's piano I would also recommendÃ 1950s Rock: Keyboard Play-Along Volume 18Ã and the various rock 'n' roll piano instruction books out there. For similar style I would recommend boogie woogie and blues instruction books.
