Part one showed me some aspects of these units that I never knew before.Though it is all in French, this is a well researched book. It is up there in terms of going over unit history and descriptions of where they fought. The best thing about this book is that it sticks to the military aspects and doesn't dwell on their politics.The biggest bonus are the Orders of Battle for different periods in the and the Officers Lists that are put into their proper 'Stellungsbesetzungs'.I will be picking up the other volumes.
