Dvořák's eight Slavonic Dances embody many characteristics of the composer's genius: his pure wealth of musical ideas, his ardent love for his homeland, and his mastery of instrumentation. These exuberant dances provided the composer with international recognition, and their publication in this inexpensive miniature score offers music lovers a convenient version of some of the most popular melodies in the orchestral repertoire. Customer Reviews

A great score to Dvorak's great masterpiece. The book is very easy to read and lies flat on a desk or music stand. Though it's the smaller sized score (8 1/2in x 11in), it's still very ideal for study or enjoyment. It's low price is a must for the starving music student. I highly recommend it for professionals and listeners alike.
