Essentials Of Cultural Anthropology: A Toolkit For A Global Age

Synopsis

The most successful new textbook for living in a multicultural and global age, now in a concise Essentials Edition. Covering the essential concepts that drive cultural anthropology today in a newly streamlined format, Ken Guest's Essentials of Cultural Anthropology: A Toolkit for a Global Age shows students that now, more than ever, global forces affect local culture, and that the tools of cultural anthropology are vital to participating in a global society. A "toolkit" approach emphasizes the discipline's big questions and reinforces key concepts to show that these tools are useful beyond the classroom—in relationships, campus life, workplaces, religious communities, and our globalizing world.

Kenneth J. Guest is Professor of Anthropology at Baruch College, City University of New York, and the author of God in Chinatown: Religion and Survival in New York's Evolving Immigrant Community (2003). His research focuses on China, New York City, immigration, religion, and transnationalism. He has conducted fieldwork in China and the United States.

The text worked quite well with the cultural anthropology class I am taking at Penn. An understanding of globalization and racism are covered beautifully and Guest's text was beneficial.

Book was clean and in great condition.

Very interesting book and the conditions the book was in are great too! Very taken care of and useful!

Pretty much new. Only one sentence is highlighted!!

Came in great condition.

Best price found for this text. Good purchase.

School!!!
