I was going to order from the used, but didn't want to take the chance of anything missing from the set. The set of categories are nice and can be used in a group setting or alone, which i will use a journal to write down the results of the questions.

I gifted Mind Games to my adult children for Christmas. It opened up a new line of communication for us. We all had a great time!

This is so much fun! It is more of a sit down thing and does require a lot of attention from both/all parties. I tried to bring it to work to throw some fun in during the day, but ended up taking it home to sit down and do it.

A change of pace for my friends to experience....shake it up a bit for some entertainment..creative fun to use imagination..

Waste of money. You'll look at it once and never touch it again

Not useful for me to assist me in evaluating kids.

I have always loved to take personality quizzes so this item appealed to me. Some of the activities can be done quickly. Others you have to get a pen and paper and it takes some time. Most of the activities were fun and insightful. However, there were a few things in the box I felt were just fillers and still to this day have no idea what to do with them. Overall, a good value. I did wish there was a little more variety in the box.

It was as expected
