Positive: A Story Of A Hepatitis C Survivor

Synopsis

Hello, my name is Toshka. You might have met me somewhere online as 'altair'. That was the alias under which, at the beginning of 2010, I started the blog 'hepatitis-minded' , sub-titled 'Various thoughts of an infected person'. My aim was that the blog should function as the journal of a disease. Not of all the tests I had to do but of the way I felt. And of how my life changed. Most of the entries in the blog were about the things that were happening to me at the time. Undergoing hepatitis C treatment can be quite an adventure at times. Other items were in the nature of retrospectives. This book is a reworked, chronologically arranged and most importantly updated version of that blog. It's my story and it's one I'd like to share with you. 30 cents of each book will be donated to Bulgarian patients organisation HepActive.

Customer Reviews

Deep and touching story that makes you cry and laugh at the same time. A book that proves one can stay positive even while fighting a potentially deadly diagnose. I would strongly recommend it to everybody - whether they have suffered from Hepatitis C or not.
