The presenter is a little dry, but she covers a lot of information about wine, wine tasting and the regions. Well worth the money.

It is interesting and educational but not fast paced. Good for breadth of coverage. For that reason I recommend it.

The was a great course... I learned a lot, very informative, and touches on different aspects...

Great guide!

Great Item!!!

Very good.

This course provides a remarkably in depth and yet easily understood introduction and survey of the vast topic of wine. I would recommend it to anyone. However, be warned that the course urges you to buy a LOT of wines to taste along the way. As a result, it would be good to watch with friends who will share the costs.
