I got this book bc I'm VERY interested in oils & herbs. This is fantastic for preserving those precious all natural herbs from your garden for use in cooking, baths, ailments & so much more.

The book was o.k. just the basic stuff

I really found this book useful, I especially liked the recipes at the end and the table with most commonly used herbs, it was very practical. Thanks for the great work.

It was a good read, but with limited information.

Dried herbs have so many uses and benefits that I wanted to look further into how to make them myself. Turns out it's not too hard! This book goes into all the different methods and techniques for drying herbs, storing herbs and using herbs! If you want to learn more about how to dry and use the herbs in your own garden this is a great resource. I'm sure I'll be referring to it often this summer.

The book was informative but it was fun to read, it seemed to have a sense of humor in this informative book.

There is a lot of difference among the store-bought herbs and the herbs that grow in your own garden and it's just not me who realize this thing. This book is a complete guide to dry herbs. I have a huge garden at the back of my house so I decided to grow my own herbs and spices at home. One of my friends recommends this book to me and I found it more than I hoped for. Though this marvelous DIY guide book I come to know the proper way to handle and harvest the herbs. I was new in this field so I had no knowledge about the herbs but this book is the best guide for the beginners. I start drying the most useful herbs at home which are far more expensive in market. Moreover I also get to know through this book the techniques and strategies to store my dried herbs.

Amazing book for anyone of you who are interested in drying your own herb. Personally I love my herbs. Especially on my pork dishes, I need to have herbs on it to even eat them because of the smell. Because of my love for herbs I bought this book and decided to try growing my own herbs, and drying it on my own a try and let me tell you that this is amazing. They taste better than the store bought ones. Highly recommended
